The Turtles To Perform Friday

The Turtles are coming to BYU. Following the Sadie Hawkins low concert Friday, the recording artists will perform at 8:30 p.m. in the Wilkinson Center main ballroom. The concert will feature several hit records, the band describes itself as "the sheer joy of their thing."

AFTERMATH
Following the concert, the "Coin Collection" will play street dance to be held in the Wilkinson Center main ballroom. The collection will be held in the Wilkinson Center main ballroom. The collection will be held in the Wilkinson Center main ballroom.

Devotional Seating; James A. Cullimore Slated

Seating for students with problems will be available for the Devotional address given by James A. Cullimore, assistant to the Council Twelve of the Church of Christ of Latter-day Saints. Arrangements have been made by Bascom, in charge of seating arrangements for the playing floor for both men and women assemblies on the floor.

Students should contact Ken Bascom for seating passes to the Devotional to obtain these.

from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The cost is $1.25 a person and $2.50 per couple. Tickets include admission to the concert and the dance.

GREAT OPPORTUNITY
"Girls, this is your chance to ask that special fellow," reminds Rosemarie Smith from the Office of Women's Activities.

In addition to the concert and dance, several other activities will highlight the daytime agenda. These events include a pig chase, an apple-bobbing contest and pie-eating competition. All contests will be held in the quad near the McKay Bldg.

The pig chase will be held three times at 11 a.m., noon and 1 p.m. while the apple-bobbing contest will be at noon. The pie-eating competition will begin at 1 p.m.

His office is 438 Wilkinson Center.

The Devotional speaker, Elder Cullimore, was called to be the assistant to the Council of the Twelve in 1966. He currently serves as supervisor of the missions of the Mid-American States.

Elder Cullimore also served as president of the Central British Mission with headquarters in Warwickshire, England.

He graduated from BYU where he was student body president. He did his graduate work at the New York School of Retailing and served a mission in California.

Prizes for the winning contestants will be gift certificates for big ice cream treats.

FREE KISSES
Kissing booths will be set up around the campus so BYU males can receive free "kisses" all day long. Free cookies will also be distributed to the men.

According to the Social Office and Women's Activities spokesmen who are sponsoring the Sadie Hawkins events, dress for the concert and dance is school attire.

City Elections

Y Voters Must Check Eligibility

Registration for Provo city primary elections, scheduled Oct. 21, will end today. Students eligible to vote are urged to register.

Eligibility is determined by several regulations. To vote a student must be at least 21 years old and have resided continuously in Provo for one year.

Wyoming Bus

Two buses will be available for Cougar fans to ride to Laramie to see the BYU-Wyoming football game Saturday.

Contact the Athletics Office for tickets. Transportation and tickets to the game are included in the $20 fee.

Execs Back Moratorium; Seek Inward Reflection

The ASBYU Executive Council passed an expressed opinion concerning the Vietnam Moratorium as the main action in the Executive Council meeting Monday.

The opinion reads as follows:

"We, the ASBYU Executive Council, would like to express the following opinion in regard to the Vietnam Moratorium.

"We are opposed to the interruption of classwork, but fully support the idea that each person should write his Congressman expressing his opinion either for or against the Vietnam war."

New System Runs Easily

The new parking regulations at BYU are working smoothly despite increases in students.

Capt. Sven Nielsen, head of campus security, said he is pleased with the response of the students to the plan although it is new.

The new system established zones with separate parking for faculty and staff around academic buildings, for upperclassmen and graduates in large central lots, for freshmen and sophomores in outlying lots, and around residence halls for campus dwellers.

With about 24,000 daytime students this year and 10,462 parking spaces on campus, the BYU ratio is about 2.25 students per parking space. This compares with 2.3 reported recently by University of Utah in a survey of the International Municipal Parking Congress. The survey showed the ratio at University of California in Santa Barbara is 8.5; at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 12 per space and University of Texas, 13.

Parking fees at BYU are $6 for outlying and residence zones and $12 for central zones. University of Utah charges $7.50, University of Iowa, $60, and University of Wisconsin, $55.

It is our suggestion to set aside Oct. 15 in memory of those who have served in Vietnam and the last 10 minutes of classes on that day to discuss the war if the instructor sees fit. We also suggest that this day be set aside as a day of prayer and meditation in the hope that the leaders of the nation involved be guided in this matter of world concern."

Other action was a report of Reed Halladay of the Association of College Unions, Region 13, which elected Reed as its regional president. The meeting was about student union programming and how to get students interested in student activities, although one member tried to steer the meeting around to minority problems, a discussion that Halladay felt was irrelevant.

The Moratorium statement was passed unanimously by the council, but not after a long discussion. The statement was drawn up by the President, Ken Karchner, but several members added amendments memorializing Vietnam veterans and suggesting prayer and meditation. An amendment proposed by Jerry Owens a student interested in the Moratorium was declined. It referred to "showing that democracy really works" which members felt was not really shown by the Moratorium, and supported the freedom of expression to encourage discussion on both sides.

Citizens will have to register in the district in which they live and will have to vote in that district.

Eligible voters must register Oct. 28 before the general city election which will be held Nov. 4.

Not on the primary ballots will be both the candidates for Provo mayor and the candidate for city judge.

Vern G. Dixon, incumbent, and G. Marion Hunsley, former city mayor, will automatically advance to the general elections since they were the only two candidates to file for the office of mayor.

J. Gordon Knudsen, present Provo city judge, was the only person to file for that same position. He is now automatically re-elected being unopposed.

News Roundup

LUENEBURG, Germany (AP)—Hundreds of dead fish floating on the Elbe River in West Germany may have been poisoned by an unidentified substance dumped by a sugar refinery in East Germany, police say.

They said the poison probably had been diluted enough not to cause damage by the time it reached the Elbe from the Aland River, a tributary. But farmers were warned against watering livestock in the Elbe.

The poison was believed to have originated at a sugar plant at Aenderz, just across the East-West border.

MOSCOW (AP)—Seven Soviet cosmonauts—the biggest assembly of men in space at one time—hurled around the earth in three spacecraft Monday apparently getting ready to put together the first permanent orbiting space station.

Soyuz 8, piloted by two veteran spacemen, blasted off from the Baikonur cosmodrome in Soviet central Asia earlier in the day to join Soyuz 6 and Soyuz 7 sent aloft on Saturday and Sunday.

LONDON (AP)—Striving for a new and vigorous look in advance of the general election, Prime Minister Harold Wilson dipped into his Labor party's rank and file for younger men and made a number of changes among junior ministers Sunday. He reorganized the upper brackets of the government a week ago.

Two ministers of state, eight Parliamentary secretaries and three Parliamentary whips were dropped, and 13 new men were brought into the government. Altogether there were 31 new appointees who averaged 38 years age. The average age of those leaving was 60.

The changes reduced the size of the government from 105 ministers to 97.

LONDON (AP)—American millionaire Franklyn L. Blower has solved the problem of what to buy his friends for Christmas.

He's giving each a London taxi—a total of 32 cars.

And a special friend will receive a 1932 London fire engine, complete with bells and ladders.

The whole consignment cost Blower, a glass importer from Jacksonville, Fla., $48,000.

Derek Hawkins, owner of a London motor business who sold the cars, said: "Blower paid us a call when he was over recently looking for unusual Christmas presents."

ATHENS (AP)—An underground organization called the Greek Democratic Movement says it exploded two bombs outside a central Athens hotel Sunday night to show officers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization that active resistance to Greece's military dictatorship still exists.

"We planted the bombs near the hotel so that the NATO officers staying there could hear and know of our resistance," one telephone caller said.

The bombs caused no damage or casualties.

IOANNINA, Greece (AP)—Earth tremors rocked this picturesque town near the Greek-Albanian border at 3 a.m. today, injuring 18 persons and damaging scores of homes and farm dwellings.

Police said falling ceilings caused most of the injuries.

A quake on Sunday in the same area injured an 18-year-old boy seriously and caused damage to neighboring villages close to the Albanian border.

JERUSALEM (AP)—The trial of Denis Michael Rohan, accused of trying to burn down Jerusalem's Al Aqsa Mosque, was adjourned today until Oct. 30 after his defense counsel announced plans to bring in psychiatrists to testify on the Australian's mental state.

The 28-year-old defendant admits starting the mosque fire Aug. 21, but claims he was suffering from an unspecified mental disease at the time.

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Two North Korean infiltrators were killed and two South Korean soldiers were wounded Sunday in a firefight below the central sector of the demilitarized zone, the South Korean Defense Ministry said today. A third North Korean escaped back across the zone.

The two-hour battle was the first reported in the section of the DMZ. South Korean troops defend since Sept. 20. The section the U.S. 2nd Infantry Division defends has been quiet since July 21.

A. U.S. spokesman said he believes the drop in North Korean infiltration across the DMZ in contrast to the frequent border clashes in the same months, last year, may be the result of improved defense capabilities.

NATIONAL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to decide whether the constitutional prohibition of double jeopardy bars retrial of a Utah defendant whose first trial ended with dismissal of the jury by the judge.

The court said "probably jurisdiction is noted" and agreed to hear a Justice Department appeal of a case dropped under such circumstance in a U.S. district court in Utah.

Broadcasters To Organize Guild Today

Take one; ready two; dissolve through to two.

Ready for action? The BYU Broadcasters Guild will hold its organizational meeting today at 5 p.m. in 115 Jesse Knight Bldg.

Students in the Communications Dept. who are concentrating in broadcasting are invited to attend the organization meeting and become charter members. However, they must have completed or are now completing one or more of the following courses: Communications 351, 372, 373, 456, 458, 453 or 550.

All other students who are concentrating in broadcasting or who have completed broadcast-related courses will be invited to become participants in the production and other activities of the guild once it is organized and as soon as activities are underway.

The Guild is an honorary and professional association for students of broadcasting at BYU. The guild's first venture will be a weekly "hand-on" TV series, produced entirely by students for release on KBYU channel 17.

The production will be a fast-moving, breezy show featuring student talent. It will provide a wide range of opportunities for student communicators to do "their thing" in a disciplined, professional setting, both on and off camera.

Letters.

TWO POINT SCORE
The driver of the yellow car.

An odd way to begin isn't it? But I don't know who you are or where you live and this is the only way I know how to reach you.

I'm sure that you remember last night, Wednesday, about 9:45 when you came up to the stop sign on 800 N. and 150 East in front of the Heaps of Pizza shop. It was eventful wasn't it?

For the benefit of the readers I would like to relate what happened, which I'm sure was an accident. Anyway, after the car had stopped, I proceeded to cross the street. When I was in front of the car it started to move. Fortunately I was able to leap out of the way, but not before a two point score. I might add that I hope he doesn't try again tonight because I don't think I could get out of the way again.

Mr. driver, I would like you to know that I don't hold any grudges against you nor am I angry, but I would like you to do one thing. Could you be more cautious next time. I have the color of your car on my pants and two beautiful colored patches on my legs. You and I are for this time, we escaped with few black, blue and gray colored patches, stiff legs and loss of a little pain. To you to all of you who drive, you not in that big of a Remember, if you have an accident it will cost you more than the few moments it will now.

INTELLIGENCE

Editor:

In the letter of Sandy printed Oct. 8, 1968, I wrote to challenge her judgment what Brigham Young said.

Brigham Young recognized intelligence. SECULAR KNOWLEDGE revelation given to Joseph in May 1833, defined INTELLIGENCE. The word INTELLIGENCE, or, in words, light and truth. Light truth forsake that evil one, '93:36-37. The definition INTELLIGENCE is the ability to forsake evil. As one can inspire definition has not to do with secular knowledge people studied the standard as the Lord has commanded would not make such do errors.

I agree we should conference to hear the messages of our leaders but is no reason why all afternoon classes should be canceled. All sessions conference except the Priest Session are reroadcasted (KBYU). If you missed a conference, see your guide for the time of conference session you watch.

ATHLETES

Editor:

This student was standing chow line waiting to eat. List to a couple of girls that he didn't respect or support school athletes—as five or six strapping lads crowded in front of the line. Things like a gentleman, or just common courtesy mentioned as three lads looked like football players their way from the back front of the line like football players.

In their defense I must say they're probably more than ATHLETES. We common and they are both in an instance of "equality for all."

It's worth thinking about.

"BUT IF I ADMIT TO ERROR ON A COUPLE OF THESE QUESTIONS AN RAISE YOUR GRADE—THEN DONCHA GEE I GOTTA RAISE THE GRADE OF EVERY THING, DICK IN MARY THAT COMES IN HERE AN CHALLENGES THIS TEST!"

INTERIOR DECORATION

Instructor Mr. Ted Dansie has been active in the home furnishings field for many years. Prior to joining the housing and home management faculty at BYU he was head of the interior design studio at ZCMI. Some of Mr.
Dansie's recent projects have been the Visitors' Center on Temple Square, The Lion House restoration, and the LDS exhibit at HemisFair, San Antonio, Texas.

Course Description: Because of Mr. Dansie's genuine concern with the practical aspects of interior design as a means of enhancing home living, he has prepared a course that will have a broad appeal to many groups.
Topics to be Discussed:

- Basic design as related to the home
- Discussion and demonstration of color and its use
- Overview of furniture design
- Room and furniture arrangements
- Planning home layouts
- Selection of floor covering, furniture, fabrics, for

Ruggers Notch Second Victory

Playing in three inches of snow, BYU's ruggers notched their second victory of the season Saturday by defeating the San Francisco rugby club 11-3. The game was an exhibition contest as part of the Ski Country Rugby Fest played in Aspen, Colo. Coach John Seggar was especially pleased with the win because San Francisco was one of the top seeded teams in the 16 team tournament.

Inoke Funske, who is from Tonga and played for the first time in snow, led BYU with two touchdowns. Russ McAdams scored a touchdown and Duane Gettman added a conversion kick to complete the BYU scoring. San Francisco was held scoreless until the final five minutes when they scored their only touchdown of the game.

"Our strategy was to kick the ball rather than try to run it into snow," said Coach Seggar. "We didn't do well on scrums and we'll be working on that this week."

Students interested in participating in the Dating Game can pick up applications at the Social Office in the fourth floor of the Wilkinson Center on Friday.

The Dating Game is conducted in accordance with the rules set up by the TV version. Three students, either men or women, will appear on stage as prospective winners. A student of the opposite sex will then choose a date.

The goal this year is to provide unusual and exotic dates. For example, winners could receive all-expense paid dates to Salt Lake, Park City, Alta, Sundance or a national park. Travel will be in limousines if the date is in the Provo-Salt Lake vicinity or other luxurious transportation if longer distances are necessary.

"We emphasize that all students are eligible to participate. The Dating Game is not intended for an elite group. We only guarantee fun," noted Paul Scherbel, chairman.

Towers Council Donates Funds To New Center

The Desert Towers Council will donate some $125 to the Sports Arena fund this fall in lieu of a Homecoming float, according to council president Terry Dodds.

Shots Suggested

The BYU Health Center has urged students to obtain flu shots, since influenza may strike the campus again this year. Cost for the injection is $1.50. An appointment for the shot must be made ahead of time.

In so doing, the students will help with payment of the arena rather than leaving the payments up to the alumni and outside sources, Dodds said. The Towers will still support Homecoming with housing decorations, he added.

The money will come from the Desert Towers budget.

Fellowships Are Available

Seniors and recent graduates planning a doctoral program and a college teaching career may still apply for Danforth Graduate Fellowships, according to Dr. C. Terry Warner, BYU Danforth liaison officer.

Students may contact Dr. Warner at 436 J. Reuben Clark Library by Wednesday.

Five of the applicants from BYU will be chosen and announced Nov. 1 to compete nationally for the 20 fellowships to be awarded in March 1970.

The scholarships pay tuition, fees and a living stipend up to $2,400 for four years, without requiring renewal. In addition, dependency allowances are available. Financial need is not necessary for consideration as a fellowship recipient.

The National Danforth Foundation was created by William H. Danforth, author of the book "I Dare You," and founder of the Ralston-Purina Co. This foundation is involved in several areas of assistance to education, the most famous being the Danforth Fellowships.
